

JAY SEENEY SOLO BIOGRAPHY

When you've seen Jay Seene perform, you know it; vibrant, tasteful, bursting with energy & one of a kind.

Having already been dubbed a guitar virtuoso by many industry reps, Jay has played his fair share of gigs; some to tens of thousands of people, others to small bar. However, one thing remains the same. A high energy, passionate performance for all involved. At the age of 25, Jay has performed alongside the best of the best at the biggest country music festivals in Australia including: CMC Rocks, Gympie Music Muster & the Tamworth Country Music Festival whilst meeting some of the biggest rock and country music stars of the planet including: Jimmy Barnes, Lee Kernaghan, Big & Rich, Lee Brice, Suzi Quatro, Chip Esten, Tommy Emmanuel, Troy Cassar-Daley, Joe Satriani, Steve Vai, Paul Gilbert, Joe Nichols, Steel Panther, Daryl Braithwaite, Scott Owen (The Living End)....The list goes on.

“This industry has a way of teaching you very quickly the difference between good music and great music. I have always carried the mantra ‘The Song is King’ throughout my entire musical career.”

Jay Seene has been booked solidly around the country and has endorsements with Schecter Guitars, Rotosound Strings & Eagle Eyes Sunglasses. Jay has performed alongside the cream of the crop in the Australian Country Music Industry as well as performing on bills including American Superstars such as: Tim McGraw, Faith Hill, Big & Rich, Rascal Flatts, Chris Young, The Band Perry, Dierks Bentley and many more.

Last year, Jay headed to Nashville to record his Debut EP ‘The New Black’ with an all star A-List Nashville Band comprised of members who play with Tim McGraw, Alabama, Kid Rock & Taylor Swift. The recording was completed under the watchful eye of Dark Horse Recording who is responsible for the production of Taylor Swift’s Platinum 5x self titled release and Big & Rich’s Triple Platinum album, ‘Horse Of A Different Color’ as well as the Rukkus Room, also responsible for a string of Number 1 hits. This EP features co-writes with highly respected member of the music industry & multi Golden Guitar winner: Drew McAlister.

“My songs all come from a real place, from real events. This is the best way to connect with people. I share stories that are authentic and relatable.”

The first single: ‘Indescribable’ was released on the 6th of February and reached the Top 20 of the iTunes Country Singles Chart in Australia. It charted higher than any other Australian artist and was also the highest independent release worldwide at that time on the chart.

The latest single, ‘Any Love Before’ has already reached #4 on the Hot Country Radio Network Charts.

JAY SEENEY SOLO BIOGRAPHY

The Jay Seene Band is set to blast a new brand of modern country rock through Australia unmatched by any other Australian artist.

“The New Black was written to tear a giant hole in what was considered normal in country music. In this band, we do not limit ourselves to one genre. Music knows no boundaries so why should we limit ourselves to one sound?”
